

FORROR MIOR / PORTUGAL.

Latin Forró from Portugal, Brazil, Argentina, Angola.

"Among the most inspired and renowned bands of its traditional Brazilian genre" - Le Monde.

The band Forró Miór brings a new concept of Forró to the world music scene. Their approach to this Brazilian folk genre remains faithful to its tradition but opens to influences of cumbia, milonga, swing, samba and latin-jazz. Their expressive verve, always open to improvisation and interplay, has proven to be appealing to forró dancers as well as to the general audience. Forró Miór bring refreshing musical originality through powerfully engaging performances.
